The Way It Was:

Each year for the past three years an Ordinance was required to waive Planning Department fees for permits issued for awning replacement and for signs on awnings as well as the Central Permit Bureau fees for review of awning replacements and the installation of pedestrian level lighting during the month of May, in conjunction with Small Business Month.

The Way It Is Now:

The fees mentioned above are now permanently waived during the month of May for Small Business Month, as declared by the Small Business Commission.
